OPENING EXHIBITION 9TH MARCH

EXHIBITION FROM 9th - 22th MARCH 2017

PIMAX

Pimax is multitalented artist, born in Montreuil and currently living and working in Paris. He creates ephemeral paintings on walls and stencil posters, his inspirations come from Andy Warhol's Marilyn Monroe, Velvet Underground's Banana or even Goldorak with his pointed finger. Here in Paris, in the Marais district, Pimax twists fashion with a colourful touch of popular culture. This blend is a strong theme that can be detected throughout his entire artistic approach. He often collaborates with his street mates, Nature's Revenge, Nemo or Jef Aérosol.

«I try to interact with the context, so I place in the streets elements and characters that belong especially to the streets. I like to show things and people that society tries to hide: homeless people, smokers, street kids, and bench lovers...»
